

Helping employees save on essential technology

Wider Tech provides employees with great savings on a wide range of technology, with options including mobile devices, computers, smart TVs and accessories.

Why choose Wider Tech?

Wider Tech is perfect for broadening the appeal of your benefits package. Lower-paid employees appreciate being able to spread the cost without a credit check, while higher-paid employees benefit from savings on high-end products.

We offer convenient online ordering for employees, coupled with easy facilities for HR to approve orders, so you can enjoy fast implementation and minimal ongoing administration.

And for peace of mind, Wider Tech includes insurance for early leavers, maternity leave and long-term sick leave, as well as comprehensive warranties and technical support across the contract period.

Our free marketing support ensures high levels of employee engagement, making Wider Tech a simple way of boosting staff morale.
